

Hi! I am Abi
the Beaver,
and I am here to tell you about being safe at BBES!

ALICE

- Alert
- Lockdown
- Inform
- Counter
- Evacuate

- Sometimes I have a drill at school.
- Drills help me practice how to stay safe in case of an emergency.
- My school is a safe place.

- I practice what to do in case of a fire.

- I practice what to do in case of bad weather.

- I practice to stay safe at school.

I have a new drill to practice.

- I will practice the ALICE drill at school.
- I will practice the ALICE drill at school to help me stay safe at school.

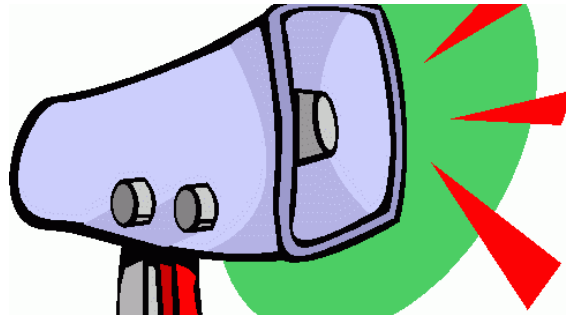

- An ALICE drill is to practice what to do if there is a stranger in my school.
 - A stranger is someone who is not allowed to be at my school. My teachers and principals want me to be safe.
 - Strangers almost never come into schools, but just in case, I need to practice what to do. This will help me stay safe!
- A stranger can be a man and/or a woman.

Alert & Inform

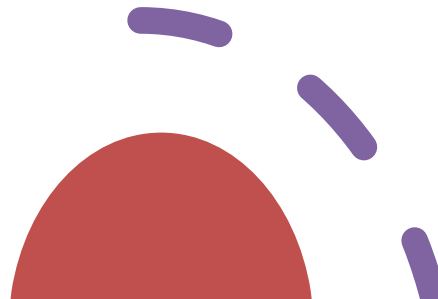

- When the ALICE drill begins, there will be an announcement over the speaker.

- Someone will say, “This is an ALICE Drill” and will tell us to either leave the school or stay in our classroom.

- When I hear this announcement, I will be quiet and listen very carefully to the teacher.
- I will follow the teacher's directions very carefully.

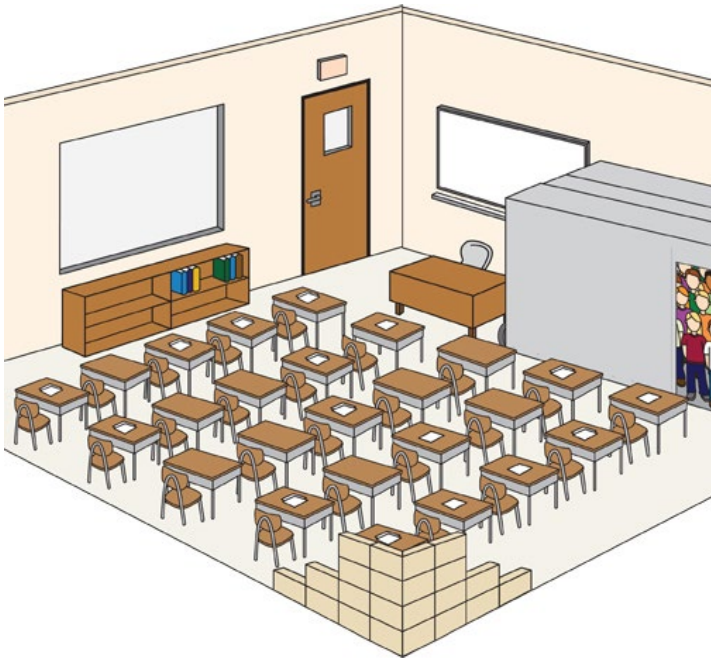

O

Lockdown

- My teacher may tell me to stay in the classroom.
- My teacher will lock the door and turn off the lights to keep me safe.

- My teacher may block the door to keep us safe.
- My teacher will tell me where to hide to make sure I cannot be seen.

Evacuate

- My teacher may tell me that we are leaving the classroom and evacuating the building.
- I will leave the classroom just like I do during a fire drill.
- I may have to leave the building through a different door. I will make sure I follow my teacher's instructions.

- As I leave the classroom, I will be silent and move quickly with my teacher.
- I will remain quiet so I can listen to my teacher's directions.
- I will make sure I stay with my classmates.

O

- The principals and police officers will check the school and my classroom to make sure everything is safe.

- The principals will make an announcement and say, “All clear”.

- When I hear that announcement, I will follow my teacher’s instructions to go back to class.

Feeling Scared

- When I practice the ALICE drill, I may feel scared or nervous.
- It's okay to feel scared or nervous during a drill.
- I feel better knowing that my teacher and friends are following the directions, so we stay safe.

An ALICE drill is a way
for me to practice
being safe at school!
