

Related Services

Related services are transportation and such developmental, corrective and other supportive services that are required to assist a child with a disability to benefit from special education. Some related services are defined by Massachusetts as special education. This is determined based on the unique and individual needs of the child. Speech and Language therapists, occupational therapists and physical therapists are some of the related service providers that may provide services.